2. Cellular devices

- Cellular devices are to remain away and on silent for the ENTIRE duration of the faire unless there is a legitimate emergency.

3. Attendance & Rehearsals

Actors are expected to participate in at least 2 scheduled rehearsals and training sessions (“Faire Schools”) for extra roles, and 4 if you have a key role.

- Rehearsals will occur primarily on Saturdays, every other week or once a month.

- Actors agree to attend as many rehearsals as reasonably possible to ensure performance quality and consistency.
- Any updates or changes to rehearsal dates/times will be communicated in advance.

Failure to attend rehearsals without reasonable notice may affect role eligibility.

4. Costuming Requirements

Actors are responsible for dressing appropriately for their assigned role.

- Costumes must be completed no later than September 20th.
- Costumes must align with a family-friendly, PG-13 standard.
- The following are not permitted:
  - Scandalous or overly revealing clothing
  - Excessive gore or graphic elements
  - Sexual or explicit content of any kind
  - “Not suitable for work” (NSFW) themes or imagery

All costumes must be suitable, and accurate, for a general audience and contribute to a welcoming, immersive environment.

5. Performance & Conduct Guidelines

Actors agree to uphold the family-friendly standards of the event at all times.

- Any planned interactions, scenes, or acts between actors must be:
  - Rehearsed in advance
  - Approved by the event coordinating team
- Actors are not permitted to use weapons against other actors or patrons, even as part of a performance.
- Any real weapons carried as part of a costume must be:
  - Declared to event organizers
  - Peace-tied at all times
  - Used for display purposes only
- All interactions with guests must remain respectful, safe, and appropriate.

6. Professionalism & Reliability

Actors are expected to demonstrate reliability and professionalism.

- Arrive on time, prepared, and in full costume when required
- Maintain communication with event organizers

- Notify organizers as early as possible of any conflicts

Consistent participation is essential to maintaining the integrity of the event.

7. Communication

Actors are responsible for monitoring official communication channels.

- Schedule changes, updates, and important announcements will be communicated in advance
- Actors must respond in a timely manner when required

8. Termination of Participation

The event director reserves the right to remove an actor from participation if they:

- Fail to meet attendance expectations
- Break role commitment agreements
- Violate costume or conduct guidelines
- Engage in unsafe or inappropriate behavior
- Fail to communicate or repeatedly cancel commitments

9. Acknowledgment
