

Combat Performance Risk Acknowledgment & Waiver

This section applies to any Performer participating in staged combat, live steel demonstrations, martial displays, mock battles, weapons demonstrations, or other combat related performances.

1) Assumption of Risk

- The performer understands that combat activities involve inherent risks including, but not limited to: bodily injury, serious injury, permanent disability, disfigurement, death, property damage, and other unforeseen risks. The Performer voluntarily assumes all risks associated with participation in these activities.

2) Training & Competence

- The Performer represents that they possess adequate training, skill, and experience necessary to safely conduct their Combat Activities. The performer agrees to use properly maintained equipment and to follow recognized safety standards for staged combat and weapons handling.

3) Safety Compliance

- The Performer agrees to:
 - Participate in any required safety briefings
 - Follow all event safety rules and designated performance boundaries
 - Immediately cease performance if directed by event staff due to safety concerns

4) Protective Equipment

- The performer agrees to use appropriate protective gear where applicable and acknowledges that failure to do so is at their own risk.

5) Release & Hold Harmless

- To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Performer releases and holds harmless the Event Organizer, its owners, volunteers, staff, sponsors, and affiliates from any claims, demands, liabilities, damages, or causes of action arising out of or related to participation in Combat Activities, except in cases of gross negligence or willful misconduct.

6) Insurance (If Applicable)

- If required by the Organizer, the Performer agrees to provide proof of liability insurance prior to the Event. Combat Performer Initials: _____
