1. Purpose

This agreement outlines the expectations, responsibilities, and safety requirements for individuals serving as volunteers/participants for The North Inch Renaissance Faire. Certain positions may involve physical labor and are essential to the success of this event.

Please select a position:

- Event set up and tear down
- Traffic and parking assist
- Building crew
- Server (must have food handlers card and be over 21)
- Janitorial crew
- Ticket booth attendant
- Information booth worker
- Ticket service desk

2. Potential Requirements

For volunteers looking to be part of our event crew, builders, or other physically taxing positions; acknowledge that these positions:

- May require lifting items weighing 25–75 pounds (or more with team lifting)
- May involve bending, climbing, kneeling, standing for extended periods, and repetitive motion
- Requires alertness and physical stamina

Volunteers agree to inform leadership of any limitations prior to assignment.

3. Safety Requirements

All crew members agree to:

- Follow all safety instructions provided by event leadership.
- Wear appropriate clothing and closed-toe shoes.
- Utilize provided safety equipment (gloves, eye protection, etc.) when required.
- Operate tools and power tools only if authorized and capable of doing so safely.
- Immediately report unsafe conditions, injuries, or equipment malfunctions.
- See previous section about proper lifting.

4. Assumption of Risk

Volunteers understand that participation in physical activities involves inherent risks, including but not limited to:

- Strains, sprains, or other physical injuries
- Cuts, abrasions, or impact injuries
- Risks associated with tools, power tools, and equipment
- Environmental hazards such as uneven terrain or weather conditions

By signing this Agreement, volunteers assume these risks and responsibilities. They agree to exercise reasonable care and professionalism while participating.

5. Commitment and Attendance

Volunteers agree to:

- Arrive on time for assigned shifts.
- Remain for the full duration of scheduled work periods.
- Notify the group leader as soon as possible in the event of illness or emergency.
- Complete assigned tasks to the best of their ability.

Because this event requires the good grace of our volunteers, reliability and punctuality are critical to event success.

6. Proper Costume & Thematic Appearance

- All participants must wear attire appropriate to the Renaissance, medieval, Scottish, pirate, or faerie theme of the event during public operating hours.
- Clothing must be period-inspired and free of visible modern logos, graphics, or branding.
- Modern footwear, eyewear, and accessories must be concealed whenever possible.
- Costumes should be family-friendly and in good repair.
- Participants are encouraged to remain in character while interacting with patrons.
- The event committee reserves the right to determine whether attire is appropriate to the theme. Individuals not meeting costume standards may be asked to modify their attire or leave the event grounds.

7. Conduct and Professionalism

All volunteers agree to:

- Act in a respectful and professional manner.
- Follow direction from event leadership.
- Refrain from alcohol or illegal substances while on duty.
- Work cooperatively with fellow volunteers and staff.

8. Compensation

Any worker looking for payment, must negotiate pricing with the event director, Micheal Roxbury, before filling out this section.
